ARTWORK BY NINA YAGUAL + AMPLIFIER.ORG

HelpCureHD aims to help improve the quality of life for those affected by Huntington's Disease by contributing financial, emotional, and mental support while trying to find the cure.

THE PROBLEM

There is no cure for Huntington's Disease. Currently, there is a 50/50 chance a child could inherit the disease if a parent has HD in their family line.

There is a way to stop the gene from being passed on, through in vitro fertilization, or IVF. A procedure that implants embryos that do not have the HD gene can cost upwards of $25,000 - $30,000. This treatment is the only way parents who are at risk can guarantee their biological child will be HD-free.

OUR GOALS

- Provide the finances for families who are at-risk and in financial need and are willing to undergo IVF in order to stop the HD gene from being passed on in their family line.
- Our broader focus is to continue developing partnerships with fertility clinics across the country and raising funds to help cover these costs for many more families.
- HelpCureHD has already awarded 136 families through its grant program, which means Huntington's Disease will be eradicated from dozens of family lines FOREVER. HCHD has welcomed dozens of healthy babies already born, and many on the way!

40 YEARS IN SACRAMENTO

This year, the Kings organization celebrates their 40th season in Sacramento, honoring their history and highlighting the team's deep bond with the Sacramento community and its fans. Through thoughtful events and initiatives, the organization is paying tribute to the unwavering support of their fans.

CHARTER SEASON TICKET MEMBERS HONORED

The Kings celebrated their 1985 Charter Season Ticket Members by hosting an exclusive dinner on the court alongside Kings Legends, to recognize the fans who have supported the team since their arrival in Sacramento. Additionally, the team immortalized these fans by incorporating their names into the design of a special classic edition court—a testament to their pivotal role in the franchise's journey.

CELEBRATING THROUGH ART

In collaboration with the Crocker Art Museum, the Kings unveiled a community art installation, Celebrating 40 Years in Sacramento. The exhibit showcased the team's connection to the city through fan and artist-created works, including depictions of key franchise moments, symbols like the Kings Victory Beam and cowbells, and select pieces by long-time team photographer Rocky Widner.

The celebration extended into the ArtMix: In the Paint event in November, where basketball and art converged. Fans enjoyed performances, painted cowbells, and listened to lively discussions featuring franchise icons like Kings former General Manager, Coach and broadcaster Jerry Reynolds and NBC Sports broadcasters Kyle Draper, Deuce Mason, and Morgan Ragan, who shared their favorite moments from the past four decades.

A NOD TO THE PAST WITH ICONIC UNIFORMS

To commemorate the anniversary, the Kings brought back the iconic purple uniforms worn from 2002 to 2008, the first to feature "Sacramento" prominently on the chest. The team debuted these beloved jerseys during their 40th-anniversary game in November and continued wearing them in multiple games throughout the season.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Kings will continue to celebrate 40 years in Sacramento throughout the season, honoring their rich history, celebrating the artistry of basketball, and proving why they have the most passionate and devoted fans in the league.

INTERIM HEAD COACH DOUG CHRISTIE

Doug Christie serves as the Sacramento Kings interim head coach following two seasons as an assistant coach for the team. Selected 17th overall in the 1992 NBA Draft by the Seattle Super Sonics, Christie played 15 seasons in the NBA, averaging 11.2 points, 4.1 rebounds, 3.6 assists and 1.9 steals per game in 827 career games (708 starts) with seven teams. During his time with the Kings from 2000-2005, he helped the team reach the postseason in each of his five seasons. He was named to the NBA All-Defensive First Team in 2002-03 and All-Defensive Second Team in 2000-01, 2001-02, and 2003-04. Before joining the Kings as an assistant coach, Christie spent four seasons as the team's full-time color analyst from 2017-21.

The 15-year NBA veteran attended Rainier Beach High School in Seattle, Wash., where he led the Vikings to their first state basketball championship in 1988. After graduating from Rainier Beach, Christie headed south to Pepperdine University in Malibu, Calif., where he played three seasons for the Waves from 1989-92. Christie ranks third in career steals (168) in program history and won back-to-back WCC Player of the Year awards (1990-92).

Christie lives in Sacramento with his wife Jackie, son Douglas and new four-legged family member, Ghost.

JAY TRIANO
Assistant Coach

Jay Triano enters his third season as an assistant coach with the Sacramento Kings, bringing over 20 years of NBA coaching experience, including 308 combined games as a head coach with Toronto and Phoenix. He helps handle Sacramento's offense, which put up the highest offensive rating in NBA history and led the NBA in scoring. Prior to joining the Kings bench, Triano spent four seasons as an assistant coach for the Charlotte Hornets (2018-22) after previously spending two seasons as the associate head coach and interim head coach of the Phoenix Suns from 2016-18.

A native of Niagara Falls, Ontario, Triano entered the NBA in 1996 working a variety of roles with the Vancouver Grizzlies. In 2002 he started his NBA coaching career as an assistant coach with the Raptors and served in that capacity until December 2008, when he was named interim head coach. The first non-American head coach born outside the U.S. in NBA history, Triano went on to serve as head coach of Toronto for the remainder of that season and two more seasons after that. From 2012-16, he was an assistant coach with the Portland Trail Blazers before moving to the Suns as associate head coach in 2016-17. He was Phoenix's interim head coach for 79 games during the 2017-18 season.

Triano has had two stints as the head coach of the Canadian National Team from 2012-2019 and 1999-2004, as he led Canada to a 5-2 record during the 2000 Olympics. In addition, he has experience as an assistant coach with USA Basketball, including at the 2010 FIBA World Championship, where he helped guide Team USA to the gold medal over Turkey.

Prior to the NBA, Triano spent six seasons (1989-95) as head coach at his alma mater, Simon Frasier University, where he played at for four seasons from 1977-81. Triano also played for the Canadian National Team for 11 years from 1877-77 and was team captain from 1981-88, representing Canada as a player in two Olympic Games (1984, 1988). He is the only Canadian ever drafted in both the NBA and the Canadian Football League as he was selected in the eighth round of the 1981 NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Lakers and by the Calgary Stampeders in the 1981 CFL Draft. Additionally, Triano has authored two books, including Open Look: Canadian Basketball and Me, a memoir chronicling his love of basketball and the rise of the sport in Canada, and in 2016 was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Laws Degree from the University of Calgary.

LUKE LOUCKS
Assistant Coach

Luke Loucks enters his third season with the Kings after spending the 2021-22 season with the Phoenix Suns in basketball strategy and personnel evaluation. Prior to his time in Phoenix, Loucks served in multiple roles over f ive seasons with the Golden State Warriors, including as a video/player development intern (2016-17), two-way development coach (2017-19) and player development coach (2019-21). While with the Warriors, Loucks specialized in on-court tutelage and instruction as he was a part of the Golden State teams that won the NBA championship in back-to-back seasons (2016-17, 2017-18).

Loucks played four seasons at Florida State where he ranks tied for fourth in program history in career games played. He was a part of four straight NCAA tournament appearances, won the ACC Championship in 2012, and was third in the ACC in assists. After his time at FSU, he went on to play professionally for four seasons in Latvia, Cyprus, Belgium, Germany and for the Maine Red Claws and Erie Bayhawks of the NBA G League, before joining the Warriors staff.

LEANDRO BARBOSA
Assistant Coach

Leandro Barbosa enters his third season as an assistant coach with Sacramento following two seasons with Golden State (2020-22), winning the 2022 NBA title with the Warriors. In his time with Golden State, Barbosa served as a player development coach during the 2021-22 campaign following a season as a player mentor coach in 2020-21.

Originally selected by the San Antonio Spurs with the 28th overall selection in the 2003 NBA Draft, Barbosa's NBA career spanned 14 seasons. In 850 career games, he averaged 10.6 points, 2.0 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game with the Phoenix Suns, Toronto Raptors, Indiana Pacers, Boston Celtics and the Warriors. Barbosa is ninth in career games played (553) in Suns franchise history and earned NBA Sixth Man of the Year honors with Phoenix during the 2006-07 season after he posted career-highs of 18.1 points and 4.0 assists in 80 contests. He was a member of the Warriors team that won the NBA title during the 2014-15 season and the club that won an NBA-record 73 regular season games in 2015-16. A Sao Paulo, Brazil native, Barbosa spent three years playing in his home country of Brazil (2017-20). Barbosa has most recently played for the Ball Hogs of the Big 3 League since 2021, leading the league in assists in both 2021 and 2023.

VIVEK RANADIVÉ
Owner & Chairman

Vivek Ranadivé is the owner and chairman of the Sacramento Kings. He is an entrepreneur, technology visionary, New York Times best-selling author and philanthropist recognized for his innovative thinking.

As a technology entrepreneur, he pioneered the use of real-time event processing software and created TIBCO, a multibillion-dollar software company. In addition to digitizing Wall Street, his software became the central nervous system for most of the world's largest companies and government agencies. He is known as "Mr. Real Time" which defines his belief that by getting the right information to the right place at the right time, you can make the world a better place.

Ranadivé is a longtime basketball fan, which started when he coached his daughter's middle school team. His coaching success was highlighted in a New Yorker magazine article by Malcolm Gladwell, as an example of innovators who win big by doing the unexpected and breaking the rules.

He started his foray into professional basketball when he became the Vice Chairman of the Golden State Warriors NBA franchise in 2010.

In 2013, he became the first Indian Governor of an NBA team when he purchased the Sacramento Kings, securing the team's future in California's capital city. Under Ranadivé's leadership, the Kings have invested $1 billion in the downtown area, creating thousands of jobs, revitalizing the region and building the next great American city.

At the heart of the investment is the award winning Golden 1 Center, the home of the Sacramento Kings. This 21st century coliseum is the greenest and most technologically advanced arena in the world. Golden 1 Center is 100 percent solar powered and is the first sports venue in the world to earn LEED Platinum certification making it a model for innovative solutions to environmental challenges.

Ranadivé is the founder and managing general partner of venture capital firm Bow Capital, a partnership with the University of California with a mission to fund technology companies that advance society and make the world a better place.

As a young boy in his native Bombay, Ranadivé listened to the moon landing on the radio and was inspired at the age of 16 to leave India for Cambridge, Massachusetts. After earning both Bachelor's and Master's Degrees in Electrical Engineering from MIT, he earned an MBA at Harvard where he was a Baker Scholar.

He currently serves as Vice Chairman and Alternate Governor of the Sacramento Kings.

Mr. Bhathal has had a lifelong passion for sports, which began with soccer and field hockey as a child in India and evolved towards American sports after coming to the United States for university studies. In 1990, he was awarded the first franchise of the World League of American Football (an international league formed by the NFL later re-named NFL Europe), the Orlando Thunder. As an American originally from India, Bhathal was the only major NFL owner who was a minority at that time. Mr. Bhathal is the founder of RAJ Swim, a firm that grew to become the industry's leading house of fashion and celebrates its 57th anniversary in 2024. RAJ designs, markets, and manufactures swimwear under a variety of owned, private label, and licensed fashion brands. The company has global operations and is headquartered in Orange County, California. Bhathal owned and operated the business with his wife, Marta, from its founding in 1967 until their retirement in 2006. Additionally, Mr. Bhathal has been an active property developer since the 1970s with commercial and residential properties in the western United States.

Raj serves as a Director of Raj Capital Management. He serves as a member on the Executive Board for the NWSL's Portland Thorns FC and WNBA Portland.

The Bhathal family members are strong believers in giving back to the community, especially in the areas of education and the arts. Mr. Bhathal is a Trustee at Chapman University and past Chairman of its Athletic Committee. He is on the Advisory Board of the Orange County High School of the Arts. Previously, he served on the Board of Gerontology at the University of Southern California, served as a member of University California Irvine Foundation and Executive Round Table. Mr. Bhathal was a founding member of the Orange County Performing Arts Center.

Bhathal emigrated from India to the United States in 1962 for university studies, earning his MBA from the University of Arizona.

Mr. Bhathal and his wife, Marta are golf enthusiasts and enjoy spending time with their family and friends, especially their grandchildren.

MATINA KOLOKOTRONIS
Chief Operating Officer

Entering her 28th season with the NBA, Matina Kolokotronis serves as the Chief Operating Officer (COO) of the Sacramento Kings. Bringing decades of experience in sports and government law, community affairs and contract negotiations, Kolokotronis' leadership has been integral to the development of the award-winning Golden 1 Center as well as its adjacent $500 million mixed-use development project, Downtown Commons. Golden 1 Center is recognized as the greenest and most technologically advanced arena in the world and is the first professional sports venue in the world to achieve LEED Platinum certification. Together, Golden 1 Center and Downtown Commons represent a $1 billion investment in downtown Sacramento – a great source of pride for the community and driver of significant economic growth in the region.

Prior to her appointment as COO, Kolokotronis was the President of Business Operations. Kolokotronis is the only female in the NBA to hold both COO and President of Business Operations titles. Before being named President of Business Operations, Kolokotronis served as legal consultant for the Kings business and basketball operations teams, negotiating player and staff contracts. During that time, Kolokotronis was an Adjunct Professor of Law at McGeorge Law School, University of the Pacific, where she taught Sports Law.

Prior to that, she served for six years as director of the Sacramento Kings Foundation, overseeing strategic development and fundraising activities. Before joining the Kings, Kolokotronis was an associate with Miller, Owen and Trost and practiced contract and sports law where her clients included the Kings and various NBA players.

Kolokotronis' leadership extends beyond the Kings organization and into the community, where she is an advocate for numerous women's advancement groups and non-profits. She is a mentor at She Shares, a Sacramento-based organization dedicated to supporting young female professionals working and creating careers in California. She also serves on the California State Protocol Foundation board, as appointed by Governor Gavin Newsom, and is the past board chair of the Greater Sacramento Economic Council.

Kolokotronis is a graduate of Loyola University Chicago and received her law degree from McGeorge Law School, University of the Pacific. She and her husband, Sotiris, are long-time Sacramento residents, and their three children – Constantine, Marisa and Nicholas – proudly wear purple.

JOHN RINEHART
President, Business Operations

John Rinehart enters his 25th season with the Sacramento Kings, and eighth as the President of Business Operations.

In his role as President, Business Operations, Rinehart oversees the day-to-day operations of the NBA's Team of the Year, including the state-of-theart, award winning Golden 1 Center as it enters its ninth season. In addition, Rinehart oversees the organization's real estate business holdings which includes the Kimpton Sawyer Hotel and the Downtown Commons shopping and entertainment district, as well as its entertainment portfolio and revenue development strategy.

Through a $1 billion strategic investment to build Golden 1 Center and Downtown Commons (DOCO), the Kings have profoundly impacted the region's economy, reenergized downtown and created a culture and lifestyle district that has placed Sacramento in the national spotlight.

In September 2022, Rinehart negotiated and led the Companies purchase of the Sacramento River Cats and Sutter Health Park. As the Triple A Minor League Affiliate of the San Francisco Giants, the River Cats provide fans the opportunity to watch the next generation of Major League Baseball players while enjoying fun, family friendly entertainment.

Prior to becoming President, Business Operations, he served as Executive Vice President, Business Operations and Chief Financial Officer where his duties included contract negotiation, player contract compliance and analysis (NBA Tax and Escrow system), financial analysis, financial reporting, budgeting, financing administration, arena programming and services, legal affairs, insurance and tax requirements.

In his time with the Kings, Rinehart has negotiated several key agreements, including the structure of the public/private partnership with the City of Sacramento, debt financing, cable, over-the-air, and radio broadcast contracts, ticketing agreements, food and beverage and merchandise agreements and building naming rights. This past year, Rinehart completed the negotiations that will bring MLB's Athletics to Sacramento to play the next three seasons at the organizations Sutter Health Park.

Prior to joining the Kings, Rinehart spent two years as the Director of Finance for Anaheim Sports, Inc., where he oversaw the finance and accounting functions of the Anaheim Angels (MLB), Anaheim Mighty Ducks (NHL) and Edison International Field of Anaheim. He also spent two seasons as manager of financial reporting for the San Francisco Giants (MLB). Prior to beginning his career in professional sports, Rinehart spent five years with the public accounting firm Price Waterhouse Coopers LLP in San Francisco.

Rinehart is also an active member in the Sacramento community. He is a current board member of the Sacramento Downtown Partnership and California Chamber of Commerce, and a past board member of Visit Sacramento and The Positive Coaching Alliance. In addition, he served as the Chair of The American Heart Association's Heart Ball and Honorary Chair of The American Cancer Society's annual Golf Tournament.

Rinehart graduated with a bachelor's degree in accounting from Villanova University in 1991. He and his family reside in the Land Park neighborhood of downtown Sacramento.

MONTE McNAIR
General Manager

Monte McNair enters his fifth season with the Kings as General Manager, joining the team on September 17, 2020. As the team's top basketball executive, McNair heads basketball operations for the Kings. In his fourth season, McNair made key additions – Selecting Devin Carter (1st round, 13th pick) in the 2024 NBA Draft, re-signing Malik Monk (Career-highs in PPG, AST, and led NBA in total points among reserves), acquiring DeMar DeRozan via a 3-Team Trade, and signing Jordan McLaughlin.

The acquisition of DeRozan marked a significant addition to the Kings the roster. DeRozan a 15-year veteran, six-time All-Star (2014, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2022, 2023), three-time All-NBA honoree (2016-17, 2017-18, 2021-22), FIBA World Cup gold medalist (2014), Olympic gold medalist (2016) and Magic Johnson Award winner (2017-18). Ranks sixth among active players in career points (23,582) and 31st on the all-time NBA scoring list.

The Kings ended the 2023-24 season with an above .500 record for the second consecutive season for the first time in 17 years. Domantas Sabonis became the fifth player in NBA history with 25+ triple-doubles in a season and surpassed Kevin Love for the longest double-double streak since the ABA-NBA merger (1976-77) while earning a 3rd Team All-NBA Selection. De'Aaron Fox eclipsed Sam Lacey (9,895) and DeMarcus Cousins (9,894) for the fifth-most points in franchise history while leading the league in steals with 150.

A native of Oak Park, California, McNair returned to his home state from the Houston Rockets, where he previously held the title of Assistant General Manager since 2018. Prior to that, McNair led the analytic efforts of the Rockets basketball operations department where he worked closely with Houston's coaching staff to provide oncourt strategy and analysis along with opponent preparation.

During his time in Houston, the organization reached the NBA Playoffs over the course of eight consecutive seasons, including two trips to the Western Conference Finals, while amassing seven seasons with 50+ wins. Over his 13 years with the Rockets, McNair was involved with all aspects of player evaluation, including trade, free agency and the Draft. He began his career in Houston as a Basketball Operations Senior Analyst in 2007, was promoted to Director of Basketball Operations in 2013 and became Vice President of Basketball Operations in 2016.

Before joining the Rockets, McNair worked as a sports programmer and researcher at STATS LLC. McNair played football at Princeton University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in computer science. McNair signed a long-term extension with Sacramento on Jan. 24, 2023, and was named the 2022-23 NBA Basketball Executive of the Year.

ALVIN GENTRY
Vice President, Player Engagement

Alvin Gentry enters his second season as Vice President, Player Engagement of the Kings, bringing more than 35 years of experience to Sacramento. He served as the Kings interim head coach last season and previously served as head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans, where he guided the team to 48 wins during the 2018-19 regular season – the third most in team history – and a trip to the NBA Playoffs, advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals for only the second time in franchise history.

Prior to New Orleans, Gentry was the Associate Head Coach of the Golden State Warriors, helping lead the team to the 2015 NBA Championship. Alvin has also previously served as head coach for the Miami Heat (1995), Detroit Pistons (1997-2000), Los Angeles Clippers (2000-2003) and Phoenix Suns (2008-2013). In 1,105 games, Gentry has garnered a career record of 510-595 (.462).

With Gentry at the helm of the Suns, he guided Phoenix to the 2010 Western Conference Finals following a 54-28 regular season record – the fourth best in Phoenix franchise history – and led the NBA in scoring with 110.2 points per game, along with offensive rating (115.3), and finished fourth in pace of play (95.3), while being the only team in the league to connect on over 40-percent of their 3-point field goal attempts (.412).

During his tenure in Detroit, Gentry led the Pistons to the 1999 NBA playoffs during his only full season as head coach of the club. In Los Angeles, Gentry improved the Clippers' record by 16 wins during his first season in 2000-01 (31-51), and added another eight wins the following season (39-43), marking the franchise's best finish in nearly a decade. During the 2013-14 season, Gentry served as the associate head coach of the Clippers, where Los Angeles led the league in both scoring (107.9 points per game) and offensive rating (112.1), while also finishing seventh in pace of play (95.9). While with the Warriors, Golden State led the league in scoring (110.0 point per game) and pace of play (98.3), while finishing second in offensive rating (111.6).

The Shelby, North Carolina native was a point guard at Appalachian State, where he earned a degree in management (1977) prior to his coaching career. Gentry is the proud father of three grown children, daughter Alexis who resides in Denver, along with sons Ryan, a 2020 graduate of University of San Diego, and Jack, a 2023 graduate of the University of Southern California.

PHIL JABOUR
Vice President, Basketball Operations & Player Personnel

Phil Jabour begins his fifth season with the Kings and second as Vice President of Basketball Operations and Player Personnel. In this role, Jabour oversees the structure and processes of the scouting department while supporting 2022-23 NBA Executive of the Year, Monte McNair, in key areas of basketball operations such as roster building, strategy, and player-agent collaboration. Jabour played an integral part in the 18-win improvement the Kings boasted between the 2021-22 and 2022-23 seasons, leading to the club's first Pacific Division title in 20 years.

Entering his 19th season in the NBA, Jabour has led with innovation and a process-driven approach throughout his career. Most recently, as Director of Scouting for the Philadelphia 76ers, he was instrumental in overhauling the team's player evaluation systems, improving how they analyzed players, leveraged film, and gathered background information on prospects. He contributed to the team's 42-win improvement between 2015-16 and 2017-18 and helped the 76ers reach the Eastern Conference Semifinals twice during his tenure.

Before Philadelphia, Jabour served as a Scout for the Orlando Magic (2012-2014), focusing on player evaluation and information gathering. His NBA career began in 2006 as Daryl Morey's first scouting hire with the Houston Rockets, where he worked his way up the personnel ranks after starting as an intern. He played a key role in shaping the 2007-08 Rockets' roster that achieved a 22-game winning streak and served as Director of Scouting for the Rockets' minor league affiliate, the Rio Grande Valley Vipers, contributing to two NBA D-League Finals appearances and a championship in 2010.

Jabour's experience extends beyond the NBA. In a continual effort to stay ahead of the curve of personnel processes, Jabour has collaborated with numerous MLB, NFL and NHL organizations to gather ideas and best practices from other professional sports. Additionally, he contributed to the USA Basketball Men's U18 National Team's gold-medal-winning campaign in 2006 and served as a support staff member of Arizona State University's men's basketball program (2002-2006). Jabour graduated from Arizona State University's W.P. Carey School of Business as a Dean's List Honoree with a Bachelor of Science in management and earned a Master's of International Business from the University of St. Thomas.

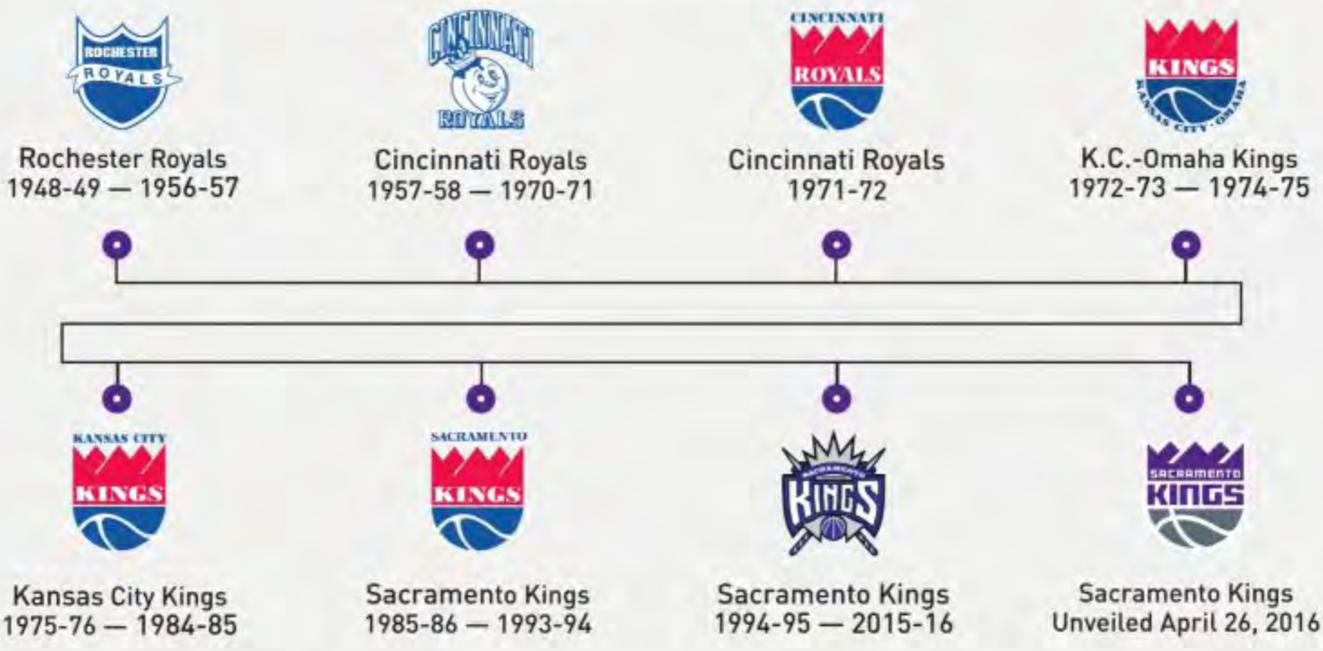
He previously led the Stockton Kings front office as the team's General Manager and was named the 2022-23 NBA G League Basketball Executive of the Year. Johnson has more than 10 years of experience in the NBA, previously serving as the Assistant General Manager of the NBA G League's Oklahoma City Blue prior to his arrival in Sacramento.

Prior to that promotion, Johnson was a Pro Evaluation Coordinator for the Oklahoma City Thunder. He has also worked as a Referee Operations Analyst with the NBA. Johnson played collegiate basketball at La Salle University in the Atlantic 10 Conference, where he was team captain and graduated in 2009.

THE EVOLUTION OF THE KINGS' PRIMARY LOGO

A chronological look at the evolution of the Kings' primary logo over the franchise's 68-season history.



The Rochester National Basketball League franchise was originally nicknamed the Royals in 1946 after 15-year-old Richard Paeth's entry beat out 500 other suggestions in a name the team contest. For his winning entry, Paeth, a native of Rochester, received a $100 Victory Bond from team president/manager Les Harrison. When the franchise moved to Cincinnati before the 1957-58 campaign, the ownership decided to maintain the Royals moniker. However, when the franchise moved to Kansas City prior to the 1972-73 season, it needed a new nickname because the name Royals was already being used by the city's Major League Baseball team. Wanting to keep the "Royal" theme, the club decided on the nickname of Kings.

On May 22, 1994, the Sacramento Kings unveiled a new primary logo, home and road uniforms, and team colors. The changes marked the first major alteration from the crown and ball logo which had been the franchise's trademark since the club resided in Cincinnati.

On April 26, 2016, the Kings shared a new brand identity with fans during a special preview of Golden 1 Center, the team's future downtown home currently under construction.

"When the Kings moved to Sacramento in 1985, the city was transformed. Today, we aim to do it again," said Owner and Chairman Vivek Ranadivé. "This brand kicks off a new era for our franchise as we move into the most technologically-advanced, most environmentally-friendly arena in the world. As Sacramento becomes the next great American city, this identity honors our heritage while moving us forward."

The new primary emblem is inspired by the Kings classic logo. It is reimagined to reflect the civic and franchise pride that has lasted and grown for a generation. Now, with a clean, modern look – a reshaped crown, refined basketball and new typeface that puts Sacramento front and center – the new identity draws from the team's ambitious beginnings and reminds our region and the world that Sacramento is undergoing a transformation.

Each of the team's new insignia are designed to connect to the elements that define the Sacramento Kings: Our City. Our Pride. Our Foundation.

The secondary logo featuring the lion, pays tribute to the unmatched pride and loyalty of the NBA's best fans. The "Sac" badge is dedicated to the bold and unwavering devotion the Kings organization has for its city. A new crown logo reflects the rich tradition of the team dating back to its origins, reminding the fanbase and the community of Sacramento that, "we are all Kings." The heralding lion crest represents leadership and strength and will be used as the Kings work to make basketball the premier global sport of the 21st century.

NATE ARCHIBALD: Nate "Tiny" Archibald played six of his 13 NBA seasons with the Kings franchise. Selected by the Cincinnati Royals in the second round of the 1970 NBA Draft, Archibald starred in six NBA All-Star Games. The 6-1, 180 guard posted his best season in 1972-73, averaging a career-best 34.0 ppg and 11.4 apg, becoming the only player in NBA history to lead the league in both scoring and assists. Archibald was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1991.

MITCH RICHMOND: Mitch Richmond became the first player in Sacramento-era history to have his jersey retired (December 5, 2003). Richmond ranks among the top five in franchise history in points, field goals made and attempted, free throws made and attempted, free throw percentage, steals, three-pointers made and attempted, and three-point field goal percentage. He became the first Sacramento King to be named to the All-Star Game, and earned the All-Star MVP award in 1995 after tallying 23 points in 22 minutes off the bench. Also while with Sacramento, Richmond represented the United States in the 1996 Olympics, winning a gold medal. On August 8, 2014, Richmond was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

CHRIS WEBBER: One of the most talented forwards to ever don a Kings jersey, Chris Webber helped the Kings reach the NBA Playoffs in six straight seasons (1998-99 - 2003-04), earn two back-to-back Pacific Division titles (2001-02, 2002-03) and record a franchise record 61 regular season wins in 2001-02. Acquired from Washington in exchange for Mitch Richmond and Otis Thorpe on May 14, 1998, Webber recorded 51 points and 26 rebounds on January 5, 2001 versus Indiana, both Sacramento-era single-game records. As a King, Webber was a four-time NBA All-Star and a five-time All-NBA Team selection. He averaged 23.5 ppg, 10.6 rpg, 4.8 apg, 1.51 spg and 1.47 bpg in 377 games with Sacramento. His jersey was lifted to the rafters on February 6, 2009 (Kings vs. Utah).

6TH MAN (THE FANS): The No. 6 jersey was retired to acknowledge the support of the Kings fans. The Kings have two of the highest consecutive sellout streaks in NBA history. A sellout streak of 497 games still stands as the fourth-longest sellout streak in NBA history. The milestone streak began on opening night in 1985, the first season the Kings played in Sacramento, and ended after the second game of the 1997-98 season. From November 26, 1999, to April 18, 2007, the Kings sold out 354 straight home contests, ranking eighth on the NBA's all-time sellout list. The team sold out every home game in the Golden 1 Center's opening season.

BOBBY DAVIES: Bobby Davies, known as the Harrisburg Houdini, played all 10 of his NBA seasons with the Rochester Royals (1945-46 - 1954-55). His two free throws in the final 40 seconds of regulation broke a 75-75 tie in the seventh and deciding game of the 1951 NBA Finals against New York, helping give the franchise its first and only NBA Championship. The four-time All-Star averaged 16.2 ppg, 2.9 rpg, and 6.0 apg in his best statisical season in 1951-52. A 6-1, 175 guard, Davies was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1969.

MAURICE STOKES: The 6-7, 240 forward played all three of his seasons for the franchise, playing his first two seasons with Rochester (1955-56 - 1956-57) and his last with Cincinnati (1957-58). In his first season, Stokes was named NBA Rookie of the Year and was named to the All-NBA Second Team after posting team-highs of 16.8 ppg (11th in NBA), 16.3 rpg (2nd in NBA), and 4.9 apg (9th in NBA). An All-Star in all three seasons, Stokes averaged 16.4 ppg, 17.3 rpg, and 5.3 apg in 202 career games. His brillant career was cut short when he was diagnosed with post-traumatic encephalopathy (brain injury damaging motor-control center) after a fall suffered three days earlier in a game against the Minneapolis Lakers (3/12/58).

OSCAR ROBERTSON: Known as the Big O, Oscar Robertson displayed an uncanny all-around game, finishing his 12-year NBA career with 25.7 ppg, 7.5 rpg, and 9.5 apg in 1,040 career games. He played 10 of his 14 NBA seasons with the Cincinnati Royals. His best season came in 1961-62 when the 6-5, 210 guard became the first player in NBA history to average a triple double for a season - 30.8 ppg, 12.5 rpg, 11.4 apg. He averaged 30 or more points in six of his first seven seasons in the league and 10 or more assists in five of his first seven seasons. Robertson, who led the league in assists in six seasons, ranks among the NBA's all-time leaders in scoring (10th), assists (6th), and points (12th). The 12-time All-Star was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1979.

PEJA STOJAKOVIC: Drafted by the Kings in the first round (14th overall) of the 1996 NBA Draft, Peja Stojakovic went on to play 13 NBA seasons, eight with Sacramento, and finished his career as a three-time NBA All-Star, NBA Champion (2011 Dallas Mavericks) and the Kings' franchise leader in three-pointers made (1,070) and attempted (2,687) and free throw percentage (.893). He ranks in the top 10 in NBA history in several categories, including fifth in career free throw percentage (.895), 18th in three-pointers made (1,760), and tied for eighth with Steve Nash in playoff free throw percentage (.900). His #16 jersey was retired on December 16, 2014, during halftime of the Kings-Thunder game.

VLADE DIVAC: Known for his craftiness on the court and his generosity off of it, Vlade Divac signed with the Kings as a free agent on January 22, 1999. Divac helped the Kings reach the NBA Playoffs in six straight seasons (1998-99 - 2003-04) while capturing two back-to-back Pacific Division titles (2001-02, 2002-03) and a franchise record 61 regular season wins in 2001-02. An All-Star in 2001, Divac played six of his 16 NBA seasons with the Kings, averaging 13.2 ppg, 7.8 rpg, 3.7 apg and 1.15 bpg in 454 games with Sacramento. He is one of 15 players in NBA history to amass 13,000 points, 9,000 rebounds and 1,500 blocks in a career. His jersey was retired on March 31, 2009 (Kings vs. New Orleans).

JACK TWYMAN: A 6-6 guard from Cincinnati, Jack Twyman played all 11 of his NBA seasons with the Kings franchise, two coming in Rochester (1955-56 and 1956-57) and the other nine seasons (1957-58 - 1965-66) in his hometown. Twyman averaged 14 or more points in his first 10 seasons and averaged 31.2 ppg, 8.9 rpg, and 3.5 apg during the 1959-60 regular season. In 1958-59, Twyman ranked second in the league in scoring, posting a 25.8 scoring average. Twyman twice scored 50 or more points in his career, including a 59-point performance versus Minneapolis (1/15/60), which still remains as the Kings' franchise single-game scoring record. Among franchise career leaders, Twyman ranks second in points (15,840), field goals made (6,237) and attempted (13,873), and free throws made (3,366) and attempted (4,325). The Hall of Fame inducted the six-time All-Star guard in 1982.

SAM LACEY: Sam Lacey, a 6-10, 235 pound forward out of New Mexico State, played 11 of his 13 NBA seasons with the Kings franchise. The first selection of the Royals in the 1970 NBA Draft, Lacey averaged a double-double in points and rebounds in his first six seasons in the league. Lacey stands as the franchise leader in games played (888) and rebounds (9,353). He ranks in second in minutes played (29,991), fifth in points (9,895) and fourth in field goals made (4,101) and field goals attempted (9,280).

SACRAMENTO KINGS FOUNDATION

SACRAMENTO KINGS FOUNDATION AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY DEPARTMENT

The Sacramento Kings are committed to making a difference both on and off the court. Through the organization's social responsibility efforts and the Sacramento Kings Foundation, they invest in the growth and well-being of the Sacramento community. By aligning time, resources, and talent, the Kings aim to create positive change and foster pride in the region. This season, they remain focused on their Do Good priorities: Health, Education, Social Justice, and Sustainability, continuing their mission to impact lives and build a stronger future for all.

2024 YEAR IN REVIEW

DO GOOD SUMMIT presented by Raley's

The Sacramento Kings hosted the tenth annual Do Good Summit, an occasion for nonprofits to learn more about the organization's work in the community, including its initiatives and priorities. The event drew nearly 200 organizations and featured presentations by the Sacramento Kings, Stockton Kings, River Cats, and NBA Foundation. The summit serves as an annual platform to kick off community-focused initiatives and programs, engage with nonprofit leaders, and exchange best practices.

LIFT presented by Raley's

The Kings upheld their organization-wide commitment to Lead, Inspire, Flourish, and Thrive (LIFT) through impactful volunteerism. Efforts included assisting with the Season of Doing Good, packing backpacks for Volunteers of America's Operation Backpacks, mentoring youth through various programs and events, celebrating educators at local schools, and dedicating time at nonprofit organizations to feed community members and support vital programs.

COMMUNITY TICKET PROGRAM

The Sacramento Kings support hundreds of nonprofit organizations by donating tickets to individuals who might not otherwise have the chance to attend a game. Organizations that participate in the annual Do Good Summit are offered the opportunity to be part of the Community Ticket Program.

SEASON OF DOING GOOD presented by Raley's

The Kings partnered with Raley's to host the 23rd annual Season of Doing Good during the 2024 holiday season, spreading joy and giving back to families in Sacramento and beyond.

Malik Monk continued his tradition with the 8th Annual Turkey Drive in Arkansas, providing Thanksgiving meals and hosting a shopping spree for local single mothers and their children before Christmas. Devin Carter supported Sacramento families with a Thanksgiving meal distribution at Simmons Center.

Other events included Eat Like a King, a dinner and event with over 15 nonprofits and 200 people, Holiday Cheer for Educators to celebrate local teachers, and Shop Like a King, where players surprised Raley's shoppers with gift cards to brighten their holidays. Kings players were dedicated to making a meaningful impact and spreading holiday cheer in the communities they call home.

COMMUNITY STARTING 5 presented by Quick Quack Car Wash

In partnership with Quick Quack Car Wash, the Kings announced the fourth season of the Sacramento Kings Community Starting 5 Presented by Quick Quack, an initiative designed to amplify the work of local nonprofits. The organizations were selected based on established criteria representing the Kings and Quick Quack's core values, including attendance at the annual Kings Do Good Summit, 501(c)3 status in good standing, and a commitment to at least one of the Kings Foundation's focus areas: health, education, social justice, and sustainability.

The 2024-25 Sacramento Kings Community Starting 5 are:

- MOSAC
- Girl Scouts
- PRO Youth and Families
- Sacramento Zoo
- Planting Justice

SOCIAL JUSTICE

TEAM UP FOR CHANGE

As part of their ongoing commitment to social impact, the Sacramento Kings hosted the 6th annual Team Up for Change Summit at Golden 1 Center. This award-winning initiative is designed to inspire, unite, and drive action around social justice and racial equality. The 2024 summit, titled "Mindful Hustle," offered a transformative 4-hour program focused on mental health awareness and entrepreneurship for youth. Fifty young participants were equipped with tools to build resilience, navigate challenges, and explore entrepreneurial opportunities. Through this event, the Kings continue to provide valuable resources and support to empower the next generation of leaders.

HERITAGE AND THEME NIGHTS

Through game night programming and community events, the Sacramento Kings have a long history of uplifting diverse and inclusive organizations throughout the region, working to enhance the lives of the people with whom the franchise engages. This season, the team is celebrating several theme nights that honor the Sacramento community, including Noches Ene B A, Native American Heritage, Lunar New Year, Black History Month, Pride, Holi, Women's Empowerment, and HBCU Night. Additionally, the team recognizes local Hometown Heroes, presented by Crown Royal.

916 AMPLIFIED presented by Dulce Vida

In alignment with heritage and theme nights, the Kings partner with local and diverse artists to provide a platform for showcasing their work with the Sacramento community. Their art is featured on digital boards at and near Golden 1 Center, along the freeway, through social media, and more.

EDUCATION

HUDDLE LAB presented by Dialpad

In partnership with Dialpad, the Kings opened the third Huddle Lab at the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Sacramento. The Huddle Lab, a technology room for afterschool programs, is equipped with computers, software, and TVs that allow connectivity via Dialpad's cloud communication services. The lab aims to support hundreds of young people and families through computer literacy and entrepreneurial leadership programs. During the unveiling, Kings President of Business Operations John Rinehart spoke with attendees about the importance of accessible technology and presented a commemorative plaque.

MATH HOOPS presented by NBC Sports

The Sacramento Kings, in partnership with NBC Sports and NBA Math Hoops, brought an exciting educational opportunity to thousands of local students across over 150 schools. Math Hoops is an innovative program that combined the thrill of basketball with the power of math, engaging students in grades 4-8. Through real NBA game data, students used basketball statistics to solve math problems, enhancing their understanding of both the game and key math concepts. This hands-on approach not only strengthens their math skills but also fosters teamwork, critical thinking, and a deeper connection to the sport. The Kings commitment to education through Math Hoops aims to inspire the next generation of learners and basketball fans in Sacramento.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

BASKETBALL COURT REFURBISHMENTS presented by Kaiser Permanente

The Sacramento Kings and Kaiser Permanente are proud to announce the refurbishment of two basketball courts, one at Hagginwood Park in North Sacramento and the other at Webber Park in Roseville. These courts mark the 18th and 19th community courts refurbished by the Kings and the 14th and 15th done in partnership with Kaiser Permanente. Originally launched by the Kings and Kaiser Permanente in 2014, the courts have been revitalized with a sleek black and grey color scheme and the Kings fan-favorite script logo. Ribbon-cutting ceremonies for both locations are planned for Spring 2025.

WELLNESS AMPLIFIED presented by Kaiser Permanente

Wellness Amplified is an empowering event designed to inspire and promote health, happiness, and well-being among youth in our community. Hosted by the Sacramento Kings and presented by Kaiser Permanente, the event brought together over 40 youth from organizations including Sisters of Nia, 100 Black Women, Mission Oaks Parks & Recreation, APIs Mobilize, and La Familia Counseling Center. Through engaging activities and meaningful connections, the program nurtured the mind, body, and spirit of its participants.

JR. KINGS presented by Kaiser Permanente

The Jr. Kings program is dedicated to shaping kids ages 6 to 14 into well-rounded athletes. With a focus on all skill levels, the program emphasizes respect, sportsmanship, and work ethic while teaching basketball fundamentals. Throughout the season, Jr. Kings hosted dynamic clinics featuring top-tier coaches, personalized instruction, and the unparalleled energy of an NBA-backed experience.

COURTSIDE CLASS presented by Mountain Mike's

The Courtside Class program transforms local PE classrooms into mini basketball training hubs. With tailored interactive lessons, the Sacramento Kings aim to give students engaging and joyful introductions to basketball fundamentals, fostering confidence and enthusiasm for the game.

SUSTAINABILITY

ROOT GARDEN presented by Raley's

The Sacramento Kings ROOT Garden initiative, in partnership with Raley's and Northern California Construction Training, combines education, sustainability, and community empowerment. Each season, the program selects a local school to receive a custom-built garden, with this year's recipient being Valley High School. Northern California Construction Training builds the garden, while Raley's supports the program's focus on healthy eating and sustainability. This initiative provides students with hands-on learning opportunities, fosters environmental stewardship, and creates lasting community impact.

MASON JONES

In February 2024, Sacramento signed and then converted guard Mason Jones to a two-way contract. Last season, Jones averaged 15.1 ppg (51.1% FG, 47.7% 3p, 85.2% FT), 4.9 rpg, 7.8 apg, 1.0 spg, and 31.0 mpg in 25 games (23 starts) and logged all triple doubles for Stockton in the 2023-24 season, tying the franchise record. A member of Sacramento's 2024 Summer League roster, Jones averaged 5 GP, 27.4 mpg, 47.7% FG, 35.0% 3p, 93.8% FT, 5.8 rpg, 5.8 ast, 2.0 spg. Jones played collegiately at the University Arkansas, where he was voted SEC Co-Player of the Year (AP) (2019-20), a four-time SEC Player of the Week and ranked fourth in the NCAA for most 30-point games in 2019-20. This season Jones is averaging 24.3 points, 3.8 rebounds and 8.5 assists through 33.5 minutes per game in four games (four starts) with the Stockton Kings.

DEXTER DENNIS

In September 2024, the Stockton Kings signed Dexter Dennis who came off a season with the Dallas Mavericks/Texas Legends after going undrafted in the 2023 NBA Draft. Dennis played collegiately at Wichita State (2018-2021) and Texas A&M (2021-23). At Wichita State Dennis averaged 8.8 ppg (36.8% FG, 34.4% 3p, 76.5 FT%), 5.0 rpg, 1.1 apg, and 27.7 mpg in 112 games (94 starts). Dennis was the AAC Defensive Player of the Year (2022), AAC All-Freshman Team (2019), AAC All-Academic Team (2019), and a four-time AAC Player of the Week. At Texas A&M, Dennis averaged 9.5 ppg (39.2% FG, 31.0% 3p, 77.1% FT), 5.7 rpg and 1.2 apg in 28.7 mpg in 34 games (34 starts). He ranked third on the team in ppg (9.5) and had a team-best of 5.8 rpg. Currently for Stockon Dennis is averaging 13.2 ppg (40.2% FG, 39.6% 3p, 80.0% FT), 4.6 rpg, 2.3 apg, 1.2 spg, and 33.8 mpg in nine games (eight starts) on the season. He has scored double digits in seven of nine games this season, with a season high of 19 points.

HEAD COACH QUINTON CRAWFORD

In October 2024, the Stockton Kings named Quinton Crawford as their new head coach. Crawford joins Stockton after spending last season as an assistant coach with the Phoenix Suns. Prior to the Suns, he served as an assistant coach with the Dallas Mavericks and the Los Angeles Lakers where he helped the Lakers win their 17th NBA championship title in 2020. Before joining the Lakers, he served as the head video coordinator and player development coach with the Charlotte Hornets. Previously, Crawford worked for the Orlando Magic, serving as head video coordinator with a role in player development. Crawford began his professional career as an assistant video coordinator with the Sacramento Kings in the 2015-16 season.

The Old Bridge, New Jersey native played collegiately at Middlesex Community College (2008-2010) in Edison, before joining the University of Arizona Wildcats as a walk-on transfer (2011-13). His tenure in Arizona included a Sweet 16 run in 2013. He later earned his master's degree in education psychology from Pepperdine University where he served as a graduate manager and video exchange coordinator for two seasons (2013-15) for the men's basketball program. Crawford becomes Stockton's 11th head coach in franchise history.

GENERAL MANAGER GABRIEL HARRIS

In the offseason the organization named Gabriel Harris as the team's general manager. Harris is in his second season with Stockton, having served as the assistant general manager for the Kings last season. He assisted in building the roster that achieved the G League's best record during the 2023-24 season. The former Stanford Cardinal was a four-year scholarship athlete and was selected to the PAC-12 All-Academic Honorable Mention team. Harris earned his bachelor's degree in psychology (2009-2013) and master's degree in communication and media studies (2014-15). He later earned certification from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Applied Data Science Program (2022-23). The Birmingham, Alabama, native played professionally for the Pee Dee Vipers of the Premier Basketball League.

COMMUNITY ACTIVATIONS

The Stockton Kings are committed to making a positive impact throughout the San Joaquin Valley by investing in community and connecting with local organizations.

FIT KIDS

The Stockton Kings "Fit Kids" program in partnership with Kaiser Permanente is a yearly initiative that promotes health and wellness in schools. The program is designed for third through fifth grade students and includes workbooks with activities that children can engage with on a weekly basis. Topics include nutrition, hydration, movement, and mindfulness. The interactive activities are created to educate young students about balancing nutrition and the positive benefits of exercising. This year, eight elementary schools across the Stockton Unified School District participated in the program, reaching over 2,500 local students.

209 LOCKER

The Stockton Kings, in partnership with Kaiser Permanente, unveiled four water filtration hydration stations at Stagg High School in Stockton as part of the 209 Locker to provide students, faculty, and staff access to clean drinking water. Stockton Kings team members, Dunkson, representatives from Kaiser Permanente, and volunteers distributed 2,500 reusable bottles to students and the 209 Locker was refilled with hygiene products and clothing.

209 PANTRY

In 2022, the Stockton Kings partnered with Kaiser Permanente and Second Harvest of the Greater Valley to create the "Kings 209 Pantry" to provide fresh produce, perishable and non-perishable goods to underserved neighborhoods. This collaborative effort is part of a multi-year partnership to positively impact the community through health and wellness programs and food donation events designed to build a stronger, healthier and more resilient region. Over the last year, the Kings hosted three food distributions, reaching more than 627 families in the Stockton community.

STOCKTON KINGS 6TH MAN presented by Stockton Honda

The Stockton Kings 6th Man presented by Stockton Honda, is a community-wide initiative that aims to enrich the lives of local youth who have been confronted with significant personal obstacles through unique experiences at games. The team hosted three kids and their families from Keaton's Childcare Alliance throughout the season.

SEASON OF DOING GOOD

Through their annual Season of Doing Good, the Stockton Kings took part in toy drives, distributing over 1,300 toys to nonprofit such as Toys for Tots of Stockton, Parents by Choice, Mary Graham Children's Foundation, Emergency Food Bank, Mary Magdalene Community Services, and more.
